Abstract

This token is perfect!! There is no upgrades, no modifications, no softforks or hardforks, or any development at all. It is perfect just as it is.

1 Introduction

The world needs something perfect. But not anymore.

2 Technical details

Perfection has no technical details. Technology always had and always will have problems. So by definition, Born Perfect, solved that issue not having technical details at all.

3 Mission and Goals

None! It already achieved them all.

4 Conclusion
